This is it, folks - the election of our lifetimes.

If Trump wins, America wins. Otherwise, the Republic is over, and we face communist mob rule.

We have a communist revolution happening before our very eyes to steal this election - it's obvious.

Americans get ready to rise up and kill the democrat communists before they do it to us.

There can be no other way absent a miracle, and if conservative America lacks the courage to save the last free country on earth, then to hell with you all.

Hold the line, Patriots!

Trump has got this!

If I've learned anything from thirty year's of practicing law, the evidence of a massive, national scheme to steal this election is overwhelming, it's clear and it's more than sufficient to overturn the fraudulent and false election results.

Furthermore, this was a criminal scheme by the democrats. People are going to go to prison.

The swamp will be drained!

Everything Trump's lawyers have told us has been true. So take heart and be confident that we will prevail!

Biden will never take office!

Stop The Steal:

Biden lost.

Accordingly, the 80 million Americans who voted for Trump aren't going to agree, follow, acquiesce to, and we damn sure aren't going to obey any policy coming from a fraudulent Biden/-Harris administration.

Trump is going back for four more years anyway based on massive and compelling evidence.

These are the facts of life

We the People have no other realistic option to communicate our unwavering intent to demand fair elections now and forever - or else.

I'll see you there!

Headed to D.C. to give the GOP some back bone - to let them know this is their last chance to Stop the Steal - or they are going to have bigger problems than these coddled Antifa burning down their safe spaces.

DC announced it is “banning guns” when we storm the Capitol tomorrow. LoL - guns are already banned in DC. Very illegal.

Whether the police can enforce their gun laws depends on how many armed Patriots show up.

Ironically, in the long list of firearms and weapons banned by the DC ordinance, tomahawks are not mentioned, meaning there is no prohibition against carrying a tomahawk as long as it is not used offensively!

The tomahawk revolution- real 1776!

Patriots have taken the Capitol building. We overran multiple police barricades and busted through.

After we had overrun that last police barricade, the momentum caused a bad crush at one point, but carried the Vanguard through several smaller doors and down halls as we swarmed Congress yelling the names of various members.

Then we stormed upstairs through the rotunda.

The first of us who got upstairs kicked in Nancy Pelosi's office door and pushed down the hall towards her inner sanctum, the mob howling with rage - Crazy Nancy probably would have been torn into little pieces, but she was nowhere to be seen - then a SWAT team showed, and we retreated back to the rotunda and continued our hostile take over of the Capitol Building.

If this steal doesn't get fixed there's talk of Patriots coming back - this time fully armed for war.

We proved today that we're in control and we outnumber the deep state 10,000 to 1 - they

What I've learned about Jan. 6.

This was an historic moment for the USA. I think that on the whole, it helped.

The people inside the Capitol on my videos are not doing anything violent. In fact, no protester assaulted anyone. There supposedly was violence in town later that evening, but that wasn't during the Capitol incident.

And the crowd was not in fact violent from what I saw. The police kept withdrawing backwards as it pushed forward.

We were admiring art work in the Rotunda. Nothing was vandalized or burned. Somebody yelled Speaker Pelosi's office door had been "kicked in", and it was, but that was all I saw as far as property damage.

The crowd was not there to destroy - it only wanted to communicate to Congress in the only real way available at the time.

And that's what happened.

This was the first crowd to enter the Capitol. What came later I don't know because I had left.

After DC, It looks like I have become enough of a sore thumb that I have the Left's attention.

Somebody explain to them that "the word on the street" in DC that people "were coming back with guns" is not by any objective measure a threat from me to anyone - I am only reporting what the people were saying - those same people that the Left loves to suppress and ignore.

The Deplorables.

The ones who will never accept the stolen election.

The Steal will destroy the Nation.

This problem might be worth the Left's consideration.

Well, I made the Atlanta Journal Constitution. It's a good article although I would disagree with the part that says we "broke into" the Capitol.

We didn't "break" anything. That's a fact.

Later on, from video, I've learned that a couple of windows were broken. Since people could have just walked in the front door, I don't know why they broke anything, but whatever - I suspect that those were the Antifa infiltrators that the DC police escorted into town. Nobody I saw did any property damage.

The accusations of "domestic terrorism" are straight up bullshit - just a
